TAVING long felt the need of a PUBLIC CIRCULATING LIBRARY in Hongkong, I have determined, should a sufficient number Volunteer to Subscribe to it, to form a Library on the same basis as Circulating Libraries are formed in England, and from my Experience in such matters in England, I feel certain that I can form and conduct a Library satisfactorily to all. My Experience in the East Teaches me that the principal demand would be for LIGHT LITERATURE, and the Ordinary 3-Volume English Novels would therefore preponderate, at the same time Works of any interest on Science, Biography and Travel would find their place on the Library Shelves.

THE SUBSCRIPTION WOULD BE $15 PER ANNUM FOR A SINGLE SET OF BOOKS.

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1883.

THE truth of the aphorism that it is the mark of a great mind to be firm in matters' of real weight and importance, and of weak ones to be inflexible in little things, was never more clearly demonstrated than by Mr. H. E. Wodehouse, Coroner of Hongkong, in conducting the inquiry into the circumstances connected with the death of the late Captain EDWARD Lik of the steamship Yangisse. The most noteworthy feature in the whole of this prolonged inquiry was the utter helplessness of the Coroner to maintain the dignity of his office, and his conspicuous incompetency to grapple satisfactorily with the various questions raised by Mr. Jno. J. Francis and the medical witnesses. Hongkong has had some considerable experience in judicial and legal absurdities; but it is questionable if the sacred shrine of justice has ever previously been so scandalously outraged and burlesqued as in this instance. And for this it would be hardly fair to throw all the blame on His Worship the Coroner. Pitchforked by-let us say, fortuitous circumstances into a position for which he had no special training or apparent aptitude, it is perhaps creditable to Mr. Wodehouse that his bungling and blundering have hitherto accomplished comparatively little damage. But neither can it be overlooked that the Secretary of State committed a very grave error of judgment in appointing to the important office of Coroner—an office which in all cases ought to be filled by a medical expert or a practised lawyer—a gentleman whose special qualifications were absolutely mil, and whose claims to such a posi- | self-esteem, and anything-but creditable tion were, to say the least, of such a hazy to his professional skill. This is a doctrine I towards the Coroner by Mr. Jno. J. Francis apparently beyond the ken of the worthy burial of the body of Captain LEE, and then, upon grounds which really roughly. No amount of sophistry, play of words, or beating about the bush can alter the actual fact. Had Mr. Wodehouse not believed. that good grounds existed that nitrite of amyl killed Captain Lee, no inquiry would have been held. In the public interest, it would have been much better had Mr. Wodehouse complied with the request of not present at the opening of Parliament. Mr. Francis, who represented Dr. Fisher's cause with a bull-dog pertinacity rare amongst modern barristers, and frankly stated in detail the actual facts which had justified his official action. By this concession a deal of the acrimonious discussion which characterised the proceedings throughout the long drawn-out inquiry would have been avoided, a lot of proclous time saved to the jury and others interested, and Hongkong justice would not have been made a laughingstock for the whole world.

What was the result of this sensational pseudo-judicial inquiry which lasted for nearly a month? Why, less than nothing. After all the sapiency and accumulated medical experience and scientific research of Drs. Clouth, Marques, and Wharry. aided by the opinions, hints, and suggestions of a whole host of witnesses, the cause of Captain Leg's death is just as much mystery now as it was supposed to be when an official inquiry was deemed necessary. The medical gentlemen were utterly at a loss to define the actual cause of death. The definition suggested by the Coroner, and embodied by the jury in their verdict, is ludicrous beyond all description. The only thing certain-and that was apparent almost from the beginning-is that nitrite of amyl had absolutely nothing to do with the immediate cause of death. And we contend that when this became apparent—the inquiry of rising." having been instituted on information tending to incriminate Dr. FISHER for having indirectly caused Captain Lzz's death by prescribing nitrite of amyl-it was the duty of the Coroner to have immediately closed what from that moment became altogether unnecessary and uncalled for proceedings, which could only prove offensive to all concerned.

and the victim in this instance was most certainly Dr. Pisher. This gentleman, on the strength of the Coroner's extraordinary and inconsistent procedure, obtained a temporary notoriety throughout the Colony the reverse of flattering to his porters, who believed and trusted in his It would serve no useful end to wade well won reputation, and despised what through the mass of conflicting scientific was openly stated to be the outcome of proevidence given by the medical gentlemen fessional jealousy. MR. Q'BRIEN'S address to the electors of Mallow is noteworthy as being, in all probability, the shortest on record. It runs as follows:-"To the people of Mallow: -Old Friends, -Our chance has come. THE Guards' Club has had an interesting financial experience. A well-dressed young man, with a sufficient swagger, walked into the Club, hung up his hat, put his stick in the rack, scanned the play-bills, and sauntered into the coffee-room, where he sat down and ordered whom they were drawn.

Two "limbs of the law," to wit, Barros Singh, Sikh police constable, and Joseph Haughton, assistant turnkey, Victoria Gaol, appeared at the Police Court this morning in the respective roles of complainant and defendant, Singh having taken out a summons against Haughton for assaulting him at the Ko-shing theatre on the 10th instant, while in the execution of his duty, appears that Joseph and some friends happened to go to the theatre late, and, the seats being all occupied, accepted the manager's polite invitation to bestow their carcases on seats on the stage. thirty-four clauses of the charter embodying | This appearing to Singh to be in direct violation of; the orders he had received not to allow any person. except the actors on the stage, the Punjaubee insisted upon Haughton's shifting his pivot, who refused to do so. Some altercation then took place, the Sikh getting pushed off the stage by Joseph, folling ou his back all of a heap between the seats, in which interesting position constable Johnson beheld him, the redoubtable turnkey being on the top of the turbaned one. As Johnson, who hastened to the relief of a brother in distress, was pulling the turnkey off the Sikh, Joseph gave Barros a fister in the pectoral region. Singh complained of being badly hurt, and had himself carted in a two-wheeler to the station. The Sikh in his evidence averred that Joseph was drunk, but this was denied by the defendant, and was contradicted by Johnson, who said he appeared to be quite "Q, T." Haughton alleged that Singh caught him by the breast of the coat, and that in trying to remove his hand the Punjaubee dropped off the stage like a dead weight, and that, irritated at his involuntary descent pitwards, the Sikh tried to strike him and fell down a second time in the attempt. An unemployed watchman with the euphonious cognomen of Innocencio do Rozario, corroborated the defendant's statement substantially. Mr. Wodehouse remanded the case til

His residence in Siberia lasted for many years, and he brought back to St. Petersburg matter of solid scientific value. On his return Krapotkin was lionised by the scientific and official society of the capital! he was appointed Chamberlain to the Empress and loaded with decorations. It was during this period of comparative rest that he wrote the books which embody the results of his research. His seclusion in this prison was brought about by the discovery. that one Borodin, who had during the winter of 1872 been expounding to the workmen of St. Petersburg the evangel of the International, was one and the same as Prince Krapotkin. This discovery threw the court into consternation, and produced in the mind of the late emperor a feeling of aversion to the entire kith and kin of the culprit. For three years the prince underwent close imprisonment. At length his health utterly broke down, and, as a great indulgence, he was admitted into the Nicholas Hospital. > LEOPOLD Stapleaux, in a sketch just published, tells a curious story of a visit he once made to Jullien. The maestro had invited Stapleaux to dine with him alone. It was before any one had suspected -Juilien of madness, and Stapleaux went unsuspecting. When the dinner was over Jullien suddenly turned up the bottom of his trousers leg, showed his guest a swollen vein on his ankle, and asked if he knew what it meant On receiving a negative answer from the astonished Stapleaux, he said it was the secret mark of the Vatican, and meant that he should soon be made Pope. Then he drew a pistol and declared his intention to shoot Stapleaux dead, lest he should betray his secret. Being convinced that he was in the power of a maniac, Stapleaux summoned up all his wits, and begged for a few moments in which to prepare for death. This being granted he sprang to the piano and began to play a wild waltz. The music penetrated the brain of the mad maestro, and he began to quickly secured and placed in an asylum.

A HAPPY day will have dawned for the laboring classes, says the St. James's Gazette, when it shall be recognized as an indisputable fact that to get from a workman his best work it is necessary to feed him well, clothe him well, lodge him well, and provide him with agreeable e tertalnment while he is working. Pending this too happy consummation, steps are already being taken in Spain to amuse the workman during his hours of toll; and the plan is said to have been attended by excellent results. "Structural alterations" having been ordered for the Madrid Theatres, as (since the burning of the Ring Theatre at Vienna) at so many playhouses in various parts of Europe, the necessary operations were forthwith undertaken at the Theatre Royal, but they did not proceed rapidly enough to give the manager any hope of being able to open on the day for which the commencement of the season had been fixed. In his difficulty he selected from a number of workmen those who had a taste for music, and engaged a portion of the opera band to play to them as they built, joined, and painted. Cheered by the strains of a fine orchestra; the men labored with such good-will that they completed their work in excellent time. And now according to the Epoca, the question of employing music as an aid to labor is being seriously considered in high places. Religion is treated as a pastime by the Salvation Army: and why not work?

DANIAN" AND MR. F. HAZELAND. CO. THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH." The gallanthero of the notorious "bucket" the clever "Banian," has struck out into knowledge of athletics is about equal to his knowledge of many other matters with which he has inently meddled for some considerable back, much to the disgust of all righting persons in this Colony, he has not only shown himself to be an ass of the first water, but has also very conclusively shown himself to be a mean stabber in the dark. As am somewhat interested in athletics, and should like to see justice done to all, I write this letter in defence of a gentleman to whom "Banian' refers in his latest "hash" in a manner which had my name been mentioned instead of Mr. Hazeland's, would have probably impelled me to pay the mud-headed Editor of the Daily Press a ceremonious visit. If that distinguished member of the press (in idiocy?) had refused to furnish me with the name of the low-bred scoundrel who imputed such mean and ungentlemanly motives to myself, should have felt strongly inclined to wreak summary vengeance on his carcase by soundly kicking him in his own sanctum. ... Here is what the gentleman wrote; and I ask your opinion if he does not openly accuse Mr. Hazeland of working the oracle for himself to the extent of "nobbling" the Ladies' Purse at the coming athletic sports.

"I was not present at the meeting convened to arrange for the coming Athletic Sports, but if had, I am sure I could not have been more amused than I was upon reading the Daily Press report of the occasion, in which I see that "it was decided, after some discussion, to adopt a suggestion of Mr. Hazeland to the effect that the Ladies' Purse should be made the prize for the I'co yards race. 'Now, considering that the gentleman named was the winner of that race last year, and stands at the moment practically without an opponent for the same event this season I think the 'suggestion' in question rivals even the proverbial cucumber in coolness. But the joke does not end here. In previous years the winner of the '100 yards' has been penalised two yards; equally, on former occasions the 'quarter mile' being for the Governor's Cup has always been open. The sapient conclave which met the other day has reversed this arrangement. I have no hesitation in saying that if the arrangement is carried out these two events will be utterly devoid of that first essence in sporting matters-fairness. His Excellency and the Ladies have the issue in their own hands. Now, Sir, in the first place it is a gross untruth to state that Mr. Hazeland made the suggestion above referred to, and the Daily Press was much to blame for making the statement, and more so for repeating it under the heading of "Chit-Chat." Before "Banian" made out Mr. Hazeland to be the schemer for the Ladies' Purse, the equal of the proverbial cucumber for coolness, and the manipulator of the "sapient conclave" to the extent of making the 100 yards and 440 yards races to suit him, he should have made himself certain that these charges had some foundation, which they certainly have not. There is another factor enters into the agreement here, and that is, that if the two races above named were to be contested under the old conditions, the almost certain winner of them both would be Mr. G. A. Caldwell, who ran second to Mr. Hazeland last year in the 100 yards and won the quarter mile race. "Banian" alludes to that first essence in sporting matters-fairness, but does he consider it fair that Mr. Hazeland should be penalized for winning, while the quarter mile. winner wed to go "scot free" and again do an easy-bit of pot-hunting? I do not think that "Banian's" idea of fairness will be supported by many, and it does seem somewhat strange that the two races in which Mr. G. A. Caldwell is most interested should receive the special attention of "Banian," whilst other matters, which really could have stood a little writing about, were left untouched. Is there any connection between "Banian" and Mr. G. A. Caldwell If not, why should the "bucket" hero only champion the interests of the Central School teacher? I am much inclined to the opinion that the dishonorable and shabby motives imputed

It would doubtless be a good move on the par of the Committee of the Athletic Sports to handicap all the races, which might be done fairly enough on the past form of the entrants, and in the case of those who had not previously competed, to handicap them from their appearance and likelihood of being able to move. Such course would doubtless produce close finishes but I think that all preliminary matters may safely be left to the executive so elegantly alluded to by "Banian" as "the sapient con-

TR. MOORE Begs to recommend his GOGO SHAMPOO WASH to the public as unrivalled by any preparation ever produced for promoting the growth of the hair. The basis of this compound is made of soap root; the natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; they are never found bald, and it is quite common to see the females with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By constantly using this Shampoo Wash as directed, you will NEVER BE BALD. The proprietor offers the Wash to the public entirely consident that by its restorative properties it will without fail arrest decaying hair. It completely eradicates scurf, dandruff, and cures all diseases of the scalp. It does not contain any poisonous drugs. By its cooling properties it allays the itching and fever of the scalp, which is the great cause of people losing

Mr. MOORE has succeeded in being able to put this wash up in bottles without allowing it to ferment, and he will guarantee it to keep any length of time in any climate.

THIS DAY.

4 o'clock p.m. There is very little business of importance to report from the Share Market today. Banks have not been inquired after. China Traders' scrip has jumped from 1610 to 1650, and transfers have been effeeted at the latter quotation. The shares of the China and Manila Steam Ship. Company are on the market at 120. Hotels have changed hands at 130, the stock leaving off very firm with buyers at that rate. China Sugars have been negoclated at 208 for March 31st, but there are still sellers at 206 for cash and 207 for the end of the month. Nothing else of special interest has come under our notice.

5.-Soldiers and Sallors have no privileges

The attention of boxholders is called to the necessity of carefully sealing such boxes with some recognisable seal, and of sending a chitbook or receipt with them. The omission of the latter precaution leaves a doubt as to whether the contents of the box ever reached the Post Office; the omission of the former, as to whether part of them might not have been abstracted for the sake of the Postage Stamps.

RATES OF POSTAGE. Letters, per i oz. Post Cards, each 3 Cents. Books, Patterns, and Commercial Newspapers & Prices Current, each 2 Cents. Registration 10 Cents. Do with return receipt. 15 Cents.

Commercial papers signify such papers as, though written by hand, do not bear the character of an actual or personal correspondence, such as involces, deeds, copied music, oc. The charge is the same as for Books, but all packets of and under 4 or weight are charged 5 Cents. No responsibility can be accepted in this Department for erroncous replies to verbal enquiries, or to notes addressed to subordinate officers.
